

MRS. DAVID STINSON
(Portrait by Seaman)

Stadden-Stinson Nuptials

In a mid-afternoon marriage ceremony at the First Lutheran Church on a recent Saturday, Miss Judith Ann Stadden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stadden, 1618 Beech Ave., exchanged wedding vows with David J. Stinson of Los Angeles. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Stinson, Hacienda Heights.

For her wedding, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over satin. Lace bell sleeves enhanced the sheath gown. An organza rose held the full illusion veil and the bride carried a colonial bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Georgiann Moltmann, in turquoise chiffon, was the matron of honor.

John Stinson stood as best man and ushers were Neil Stinson and Paul Jensen.

Pastor William Roledor officiated at the marriage ceremony as Bernard Verkaik played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Anne Olson, soloist.

A reception followed in the Fireside room at the church with Mrs. Karen Peannenstell registering the guests.

The honeymoon was spent in northern California. The newlyweds are living in Hawthorne until June when they will move to Lancaster, Pa.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and El Camino College. Her husband, a senior at USC, was graduated from the Lutheran High School and El Camino.
